

Strasbourg,
France

SHORT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

..... HOST INFORMATION

Hélène Dollfus

Ophthalmologist, Medical Geneticist, MD

CARGO, Hôpitaux Universitaires de Strasbourg, France

Reference center for Rare Eye Diseases

Clinical unit

Retinal RED

Paediatric RED

..... INTENDED PARTICIPANTS - TRAINEES

Medical Doctor

Orthoptists

Genetic Counsellors

Psychological experts

Other medical or team experts related to the care of our specific rare eye diseases

Medical Specialists

..... OBJECTIVES OF THE EXCHANGE

Knowledge sharing between medical network members

Knowledge sharing between other members of the ERN-EYE expert teams

Strong expertise in inherited retinal RED and syndromic forms

Strong experience in the multidisciplinary approach of the RED

Genetic diagnostics

Participation in clinical trials (including gene therapy)

Learning about multilevel management of patients with RED- from both clinical and laboratory aspects.

..... ORGANISATION OF THE EXCHANGES

Yes, one at a time

Yes, two at a time

One week (one 5-day package)

Two weeks (two 5-day packages)

Edition n°2 (Sept. 2021 - February 2022)

Edition n°3 (March 2022 - Sept. 2022)

.....
Full name and
Grade of host:

Profession & specialty:

HCP name:

Department:

Type:

Rare Eye Diseases
covered:

.....
Function of intended
participants:

Level of expected
trainees:

.....
Objectives:

Main RED activities:

Expected benefits for the trainees:

.....
I volunteer to welcome a
trainee in my hospital:

For you, what is the ideal
duration of the exchange:

Preferred Edition to host: